BOOM TOWN

— Halifax

Preface

Levelled by a massive explosion in the early 20th century, Halifax’s North End is now welcoming an explosion of young professional families.

Halifax, North End, Property

On the morning of 6 December 1917 a French munitions ship loaded with arms for the war in Europe set sail from Halifax harbour on Canada’s east coast. But the ship, the Mont Blanc, began drifting off course; in its path was a neutral Norwegian relief vessel, the Imo, carrying supplies for Belgium.

The boats collided and the weaponry on the
